

June 13, 2006

Press Release: Ray Wiese elected president of EM-NARI

At its End-of-Year Board of Directors meeting in Woburn, MA, the Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (EM-NARI) elected Raymond J. Wiese, CR, CLC of The Wiese Company in Natick, MA as the incoming President for the 2006-2007 term.

Wiese has been a member of the Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of NARI since 1997, and has served as an officer EM-NARI—most recently as First Vice President, in 2005-2006. Wiese's previous experience on the NARI Board of Directors includes serving as Treasurer, Membership Committee Chairperson as well as a member of the Ethics Committee. "I am honored to serve as NARI's Eastern Mass Chapter President," Wiese said, "and am committed to NARI's mission 'to create an exceptional experience for the remodeling consumer.' Serving in a leadership role at NARI is a tremendous opportunity to both advance national-level policy that ultimately affects our end-consumer; as well as to educate business-owners in order to expand alongside the growing multi-billion-dollar remodeling industry."

Other NARI elections included the naming of Bill Farnsworth of Custom Contracting in Arlington as First Vice President and Phillip Bates of The Classic Group in Lexington as Second Vice President.

About the National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI)

The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) is the only trade association dedicated solely to the remodeling industry. With more than 7,000 members nationwide, the Association—based in Des Plaines, Illinois—is "The Voice of the Remodeling Industry"TM.